

The Princeton law firm of Mason, Griffin & Pierson, P.C. is marking its 50th anniversary in 2005. Ralph S. Mason and Gordon D. Griffin founded the firm on January 1, 1955. Started as a general practice, the firm is now comprised of eight practice groups: Bankruptcy; Business & Banking; Employment Law; Estates & Trusts; Governmental Affairs; Litigation & Personal Injury; and Real Estate and Land Use. The firm hosted a party for clients and friends last month.

Reprinted with permission of Mercer Business Magazine, 2005