On Oct. 20, the Mercer County Bar Foundation will recognize the Princeton firm of Mason, Griffin & Pierson for its continued participation in and support of the bar association in a variety of capacities, including terms as presidents and members of committees. The firm will receive the Community Partner Award at the bar's annual dinner dance, to be held at the Richard Hughes Justice Complex in Trenton from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. The evening event will generate funds for KITES, Kids Instructed in Tolerance through Education and Support, a program developed by the foundation to educate children and their parents about conflicts resolution and violence prevention. For more information, contact the Mercer County Bar at (609) 585-6200.
